Questions & Answers

What is the largest organization for which you have been an elected officer, if any? Please include dates of service, number of members and what office you held.

ECAR 2021-present Niceville Director

What are the major challenges and opportunities facing ECAR today in the Area you work in and what suggestions do you have to resolve these matters?

As Realtors®, we encounter a dynamic market with its ups and downs, driven by factors like technological advancements and shifting regulations. To overcome these challenges, our association must remain committed to making informed decisions based on data when investing our resources. Our dedication to ongoing education enables us to better serve our valued customers, ensuring they receive the best possible support throughout their homeownership journey.

What opportunities do you envision for ECAR's future?

The real estate market is continually changing, and it is essential for the ECAR to remain flexible, adaptable, and forward-thinking to solidify its position as the ultimate knowledge hub for both our valued members and their customers.

Describe your perception of the role of ECAR Director and the reasons you believe you are qualified to serve in this position. Include your strengths that would be an asset to the Association.

As a Realtor® and a current director, I perceive the ECAR Director role as vital in representing members and shaping policies that benefit our members. My extensive experience, local market knowledge, and commitment to ethics make me a strong candidate. I excel in communication, collaboration, and problem-solving, and will work diligently to foster growth and unity among Realtors while promoting professional development and ethical conduct. As a current director, I am already actively engaged in advancing the interests of our association and working to ensure ECAR's continued success.
